June 5th, 2020 - The Iran United States Claims Tribunal (IUSCT) is an international arbitral tribunal that resolves claims between the nationals and governments of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the United States of America. It was established on 19 January 1981 by the Algiers Declarations, an Algeria-mediated agreement between the US and Iran to resolve the Tehran Hostage Crisis.

June 7th, 2020 - The US and Iran agreed to form the IUSCT under the Algiers Accords following the 1979 Tehran Hostage Crisis. The IUSCT received private and national claims for one year following its formation. The $1.7 billion January settlement likely arose from IUSCT Case No. B1, which relates to foreign military sales programs (FMS) between Iran and the US. The settlement likely also relates to Case No. B10, the settlement of which is likely to be argued by US sanctions.
